1. Per references (a) and (b), request for modification to Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) explosives safety exemption (E1-11) for Joint Expeditionary Base (JNTEXPBASE) Little Creek-Fort Story to include piers 54 and 55 is approved. Ammunition and explosives handling can be conducted at these piers, consistent with DoD Explosives Safety Board (DDESB) or Naval Ordnance Safety and Security Activity (NOSSA) site approvals.

2. NOSSA will update the DON WAIVORD database to reflect this modification as E1A-11 for JNTEXPBASE Little Creek-Fort Story, retaining the 30 September 2016 expiration date. Any changes to the above authorization must receive prior approval from NOSSA.

(b) NOSSA ltr 8020 Ser N54-NC/1342 of 23 Aug 11

1. As requested and recommended by references (a) and (b), a Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) explosives safety exemption (E1-11) for Joint Expeditionary Base (JNTEXPBASE) Little Creek-Fort Story is approved.

2. This exemption allows the handling and storage of ammunition and explosive material within the Norfolk International Airport (NIA) Airfield (Explosives) Prohibited Area. Accordingly, limited amounts of ammunition and explosive material, consistent with Department of Defense Explosives Safety Board or Naval Ordnance Safety and Security Activity (NOSSA) site approvals, can be handled at the quay wall, Piers 11 through 18, Assault Craft Unit Four (i.e., ready service locker and ordnance loading area) and the floating dock, west of the quay wall, in support of ship and small craft loading/off loading.

3. NOSSA will update the Department of Navy WAIVORD database to reflect the addition of CNO Exemption JNTEXPBASE Little Creek-Fort Story E1-11. The expiration date for this exemption will be 30 September 2016. Any changes to the above authorizations must receive prior approval from NOSSA.
